MARGARET RIVER COMMUNITY CENTRE - FRIDAYS

8-week programme beginning 21st February

Bookings: Humanitix <https://events.humanitix.com/home-schooling-teens>

Morning session: Literature, Politics, and History through Huxley's Brave New World

- Duration: 8 weeks
- Overview: This program delves into Aldous Huxley's Brave New World to explore themes of literature, politics, and history.

Participants will engage in deep discussions and critical analysis of the text, connecting its themes to contemporary issues.

- Location: Margaret River Community Centre - Small Room
- Ideal For: Teens in Witchcliffe, Augusta, Margaret River, or Cowaramup who are committed to participating every Friday.
- Note to Parents: Your support in ensuring consistent attendance and engagement is essential to the program's success.

Afternoon session: History and Philosophy through the Art of Tarot

- Duration: 8 weeks
- Overview: Explore philosophy and history through the rich imagery of tarot cards, viewed as a cultural artifact in Europe. The program examines symbolic representations of concepts such as Justice, Fortitude, Resurrection, Truth, Death, and Evil. Participants will copy and discuss these vibrant images, stimulating imagination and fostering moral and philosophical inquiry.
- Art Resources: The tarot images we'll use can be viewed here: <https://fourhares.com/tarot/course/mott/i.html> (navigate using the forward arrow).
- Location: Margaret River Community Centre - Main Room
- Ideal For: Teens in Witchcliffe, Augusta, Margaret River, or Cowaramup who are committed to participating every Friday.
